September is National Library Card Signup Month!

September is the month set aside to remind you just how important your library card is, and to encourage you to sign up for one if you have not already! This year's National Library Card Signup Month honorary mascots are the Teen Titans! New library card signups will be entered to win a $10 Wal-Mart gift card.

Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration

September 18, 2017 5:00 - 6:00pm

PBS Film - Latino Americans: the 500-Year Legacy that Shaped a Nation (NR)

Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month September 15—October 15. Come to our Meet, Greet, and Learn event to experience the Latin American Historical Poster series by the Smithsonian. While you're here, try a taste of Hispanic flavor with tasty food samples while watching our Hispanic Heritage Month film.

Banned Books Week

September 25-30, 2017

Banned Books Week, an annual celebration of the freedom to read since 1982, is observed the last week of September. Each year, librarians take this opportunity to highlight the importance of intellectual freedom and remind us not to take this precious democratic freedom for granted. Checkout our display of books that have been banned and challenged in the United States.

Herb Gardening for Beginners

September 28th, 2017 11:30am - 12:15pm

Interested in having fresh herbs at your disposal to spruce up any dish? Looking for the perfect thing to change up your garden routine? NC Extension Agent Paul McKenzie will give tips on how to start your very own herb garden and make sure that it thrives.

The library will be closed September 2nd through the 4th in observance of Labor Day.
