

Warren County Memorial Library

Summer Reading 2015

June 15th – July 30th

Adult Programs

June 13th 10:30am

Families and Houses of Old Merry Mount – a Genealogical Look Into the Families of Warren County and Surrounding Areas by James Coleman

James Coleman will be presenting a fascinating genealogical presentation about the Merry Mount area in Warren County. He will be showcasing information and showing pictures from his book, The Coleman Family of Warren County, North Carolina, An American Odyssey, 1655-2015. Following the presentation, there will be an informal discussion on genealogical research in Virginia, North Carolina, and Warren County in particular. The discussion will be moderated by the author and will draw upon his five years of research for the book.

June 15th 10:00am

Summer Reading Kickoff Celebration

Readers from preschool age through adult are invited to celebrate our theme "Every Hero Has a Story." Registration begins at 10:00am. Please stop by and visit Fat Cat, Smokey the Bear, and the Chick-Fil-A Cow. WARR 1520 AM and several government agencies will also be present.

Character Antics – Boho the Clown will join us at 11:00am during this event. Refreshments will be served!

June 19th 1:00-3:30pm

Friday Films – Unbroken (PG-13)

A story of overcoming adversity, Unbroken follows the story of Louis "Louie" Zamperini, who is always in trouble, but with the help of his older brother, he turns his life around and channels his energy into running, later qualifying for the 1936 Olympics. When World War II breaks out, Louie enlists in the military. After his plane crashes in the Pacific, he survives an incredible 47 days adrift in a raft, until his capture by the Japanese navy. Sent to a POW camp, Louie becomes the favorite target of a particularly cruel prison commander. Based on a true story, this film is rated PG-13 with a 137 minute runtime.

June 24th 12:00-1:00pm

Books, Brew, and You

Drop by for a cup of coffee and participate in a review of our new and featured titles that you “must read.”

June 25th 12:00-1:00pm

Afternoon Tea with the BBC – London Suite (Not Rated)

On one day at an English Hotel, four different stories are shown. Diana is in London to promote her Television Series and her ex-husband Sidney shows up to ask her for money for his lover. Mark and Annie come to London for the Wimbledon Tennis matches, but they lose their tickets and Mark's back goes out. Debra is on her honeymoon with Paul, but Paul is missing and Debra lies to everyone she meets as to where Paul is. Sharon and Lauren are on a shop till you drop trip and Sharon meets Dennis, an older man who seems to be interested in her. Not Rated with a 90 minute runtime.

June 26th 1:00pm

Summer Music: Matt Nelson and Wilmont O'Neal

Summer is a time to get lost in music. What's a better place to do it than at the library? Matt Nelson and Wilmont O'Neal will be here playing blues music for all to enjoy, so be sure to come by and do just that!

July 2nd 12:00-2:00pm

Celebrate Veterans: Movie/Musical Tribute - Tuskegee Airmen (PG-13)

The library celebrates veterans prior to Independence Day with a movie and musical tribute. The movie is Tuskegee Airmen a semi-fictionalized account of the Tuskegee Airmen, the first all-African-American Air Force squadron during World War II, the film centers on ambitious young pilot Hannibal Lee. Despite initial reticence by higher ranking white officers, Lee, along with Walter Peoples, Leroy Cappy, and others, are deployed into combat. As the successful missions mount, the Tuskegee Airmen develop a reputation as an able, fearsome group of pilots. The movie is rated PG-13 with a 106 minute runtime.

July 7th 11:00am

Tech Time: Email

This program is designed to help you learn how to better use a computer. Come learn how to operate your email or get help in setting one up!

July 8th 10:00-12:00pm

Knitting Club

Stop by to share, learn, and discuss needles and yarn!

July 9th 10:00am-4:00pm

Halfway Reading Celebration

Visit the library to celebrate the half way mark of Summer Reading. Stop by to report the number of books you have read so far and pick up prizes! Refreshments will also be served.

July 10th 1:00-3:30pm

Friday Films – The Avengers (PG-13)

When Thor's evil brother, Loki, gains access to the unlimited power of the energy cube called the Tesseract, Nick Fury, director of S.H.I.E.L.D., initiates a superhero recruitment effort to defeat the unprecedented threat to Earth. Joining Fury's "dream team" are Iron Man, Captain America, the Hulk, Thor, the Black Widow, and Hawkeye. Rated PG-13 with a 143 minute runtime.

July 14th 12:00-1:00pm

Beth's Tasty Home

Beth Perkinson will stop by and dazzle us with a cooking demonstration filled with kitchen tips and tricks sure to benefit any would-be chef. You won't want to miss out on this fun and informative program – especially the tasting portion!

July 15th 11:00am

Tech Time: Email Attachments

This program is designed to help you learn how to better use a computer. Come learn how to attach documents to your email or retrieve documents others send to you!

July 17th 1:00-3:30pm

Friday Films – The Dark Knight (PG-13)

With the help of allies Lt. Jim Gordon and DA Harvey Dent, Batman has been able to keep a tight lid on crime in Gotham City. But when a vile young criminal calling himself the Joker suddenly throws the town into chaos, the caped Crusader begins to tread a fine line between heroism and vigilantism. Rated PG-13 with a 153 minute runtime.

July 22nd 12:00-1:00pm

Books, Brew, and You

Drop by for a cup of coffee and participate in a review of our new and featured titles that you "must read."

July 23rd 12:30-2:00pm

Afternoon Tea with the BBC – The Invisible Woman (R)

Nelly Wharton Robinson recalls a fateful time from her past when, as a young actress, she met author Charles Dickens and secretly became his mistress and muse. Rated R with a 111 minute runtime.

July 24th 1:00-3:30pm

Friday Films – The Lone Ranger (PG-13)

In 1933 a boy discovers an ancient Native American in a sideshow carnival tent. This Native American is Tonto, the old companion of John Reid, a lawman more famously known as the Lone Ranger. With this opportunity to set the record straight about his and Reid's adventures, Tonto recalls the day in 1869 when he first encountered the man who would be his trusted friend and tells of their teamwork bringing down Butch Cavendish and other Old West outlaws. Rated PG-13 with a 149 minute runtime.

July 27th All Day

Last Day to Report

This is the last day to report books at the library to count towards our top-reader prizes!

July 28th 11:00am

Tech Time: Email

This program is designed to help you learn how to better use a computer. Come learn how to operate your email or get help in setting one up!

July 29th 11:00am

Tech Time: Email Attachments

This program is designed to help you learn how to better use a computer. Come learn how to attach documents to your email or retrieve documents others send to you!

July 30th 5:00pm

Closing Ceremony

Join us for light refreshments as we conclude the Summer Reading program for 2015. We will recognize the two top readers in each age category. During the program, there will also be drawings – drawings for door prizes for attendees as well as a drawing for the grand prize for all entering participants throughout the course of Summer Reading.

All events are free and open to the public. They take place at Warren County Memorial Library at 119 S. Front Street, Warrenton, NC. Feel free to contact us! Phone: 252-257-4990. Website: www.wcmlibrary.org. Also “Like” us on Facebook. This institution is an equal opportunity provider and employer.